Program outcomes- BSW (Under Graduation)

1. Students have demonstrated theoretical knowledge supported by empirical evidence for understanding behavior across the life span of multiple client systems and their interactions.

2. Students have demonstrated the knowledge, values, and skills to be critical consumers of research for effective practice and to possess basic skills to evaluate their practice.

3. Students have demonstrated the ability to apply the knowledge, values, and skills of generalist social work practice necessary for initial professional social work practice with systems of all sizes and across client populations. Students are prepared to demonstrated mastery of the six foundation social work roles: advocate, broker, community change agent, counselor, mediator, and researcher.

4. Students have demonstrated knowledge necessary to understand the development of social services and the skills to analyze, formulate, and influence social policy.

5. Students have demonstrated the knowledge, values, and skills necessary for understanding forms and mechanisms of oppression and discrimination and apply strategies of advocacy and social change that advance social and economic justice.

6. Students have demonstrated knowledge and values to understand and appreciate human differences both as a source of strength and a basis for discrimination; students have practice without discrimination and with respect, knowledge, and skills related to clients' age, class, color, culture, disability, ethnicity, family structure, gender, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, and sexual orientation.

7. Students have demonstrated the ability to practice according to the value base of the profession and its ethical standards and principles.

8. Students have applied critical thinking skills within the context of professional social work practice.

9. Students have demonstrated the ability to use communication skills differentially across client populations, colleagues, and communities.

10. Students have demonstrated the ability to effectively use supervision and consultation appropriate to social work practice

11. Students have demonstrated the ability to function within the structure of agency, organization, and service delivery systems and seek necessary organizational change.

12. Students have demonstrated the ability to integrate field experiences that offer the opportunity to engage in supervised practice, begin to apply knowledge, values, and skills necessary for effective social work practice, use supervision and consultation appropriate to social work practice with systems of all sizes, function within the structure of organizations and service delivery systems, and seek necessary organizational change. Students have demonstrated mastery of the six foundation social work roles: advocate, broker, community change agent, counselor, mediator, and researcher.

13. Students have demonstrated the ability to understand and interpret both the history of the profession, and professional socialization and the social welfare system, as part of the context for their practice.

Principal
Bhagini Mandal Chopda Sanchalit
College of Social Work, Chopda

Program outcomes- MSW (Post Graduation)

1. Students could acquire professional knowledge of Social work.

2. To know the social work methods and its implementation process in society.

3. Students could develop communication skills.

4. To know the role enabler, helper, problem solver as social work.

5. Students could know process of individuals problem solving.

6. Students could work as group worker, he/she establish group; fulfill needs and objectives of group, to solve the problems of various groups in society.

7. The course can encourage students for find out issues of society/ community and to getting solutions with the help of villagers.

8. Student can acquire research knowledge and they implement in society.

9. After completing this course Students will get opportunities in various job like community organizer, Group workers in NGO, Medical social worker, councilor, social welfare officer, Labor welfare officer, Superintendent in Hostel, etc.

10. One thing is very important is that, Social work Students are adopting moral values and democratic aspect in their lives.

Principal
Bhagini Mandal Chopda Sanchalit
College of Social Work, Chopda