The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013)

Best Practice

Title of the Practice: Green Campus

Goal: To make college campus green and as a part of syllabus students have to participate and create awareness about environment.

The Context: The College having sufficient open place/land for plantation. In the social work education we are making the students about environmental consciousness. To make the place rich in case of environment and pollution free which will be helpful for teaching and learning process in the college. Today the world is facing global warming problem by this green campus practice we are paying gratitude about the earth. By this broad aim we are trying to make this world more and more beautiful, green, healthy and happy for the living purpose of the human beings and animals. We are building close association between human beings and environment by green campus practice. We are following the word of Lord Buddha” “Go in the Nature, Live with Nature, Follow the Nature and the Nature will teach you how to live satisfied and happy life”. The college attempts to create clean and green campus of the college.

The Practice: The College has taken plantation activity in the beginning of the rainy season. The college students, faculties and staff were involved the “Green Campus” activity and around 100 plant were planted in the college. The various plants like Rose, Nerium, Hibiscus, Aloe vara, Michalia, Saraca indica, Shisoo Dalbargia, etc. The drip system is used in the college for water conservation, fast growing of the plants, etc. The drip system also helps in the presentation of wasting water.

Evidences of Success: The Drip system is properly running or not that has been checked with regular interval. The proper care of the plant has been taken care by the each student and staff of the college due to this 80% of the plants was alive.

Problem Encountered and Resources Required: As far as problems are concern there are no much more problems and some small problems were solved by the college to make camps green.

Annexure- V

1) Title of the Practice:- Gender Sensitization Campaign

2) Goal:-

- 1) To aware the people of rural and tribal community about the gender bias Issues. I.e. Education, Health, finance etc.
- 2) In the rural and tribal community male violence against women should be Stop. Women and men, Girls and Boys must have the same right and access to physical integrity.
- 3) In the community there should be need to prevent female feticide due to Various reasons. i.e. Superstition, illiteracy, poverty, wish for male child etc.
- 4) In the community every female should get equal rights and opportunities in education, Health, economic and politics etc.
- 5) To motivate the people of community through street play, role play and Individual visit and field work about gender sensitization.

3) The Context:-

Chopda is located near to Satpuda valley. Here most of population belonging from rural and tribal community. They are mostly depending upon agriculture and forest area. Actual literacy condition of women is not satisfied as compare to male. The male female ratio is 1000:936 and child sex ratio is 1000:868. There is impact of tradition and culture and there is female dominant nature of the community. These observed in the field work practice.

In our tradition-bound society, certain attitudinal change and change in the mindset is needed to respect women and to ensure gender justice. Right from childhood years, children ought to be sensitized to respect women. A child should be taught to respect women in the same way he is taught to respect men. Gender equality should be made a part of the College curriculum. People of community should be aware by conducting street play, individual visit, and field work activities.

4) The Practice: -

In the beginning of academic session Mr. Amol Kale, Coordinator, Yuva-Tarang , MAVA, Pune inspired students active participation in the workshop organized by College of social work, Chopda. After that 10 students participated in the training workshop on gender sensitization organized by MAWA , Yuva-Tarang, Pune with collaboration of North Maharashtra University, Jalgaon at North Maharashtra University, Jalgaon in the month of October, 2016. In this training workshop students got training to sensitize the community with help of various tools and technique. i.e street play, Role play, individual visits etc.,

After training workshop participated students of our college run gender sensitization awareness in the college campus for students and staff. Master trainers also give training to the students of SYBSW. Then students were divided in to four groups. Four groups of students sensitize the community through street play Role play, personal interaction etc. They presented Street play on gender sensitization campaign in Sunder gaddhi, Arun nagar, State Transport Dept, Bariwada, Panchashil Nagar of Chopda city.

College also organized lecture on Gender sensitization. Prof Rajashree Pagare delivered lecturer on Gender sensitization. In her speech Prof Rajshree Pagare focused on regional issues of male and female in khandesh region.

5) Evidence of success:-

- a. In the college premises students give respect to each other and also encouraged the female students to participate equally in each activities of our college .
- b. When discussion with the concerning staff of maternity home it was observe that the eagerness of the male child to the pregnant women in not seen.
- c. The community people behave with the family equally.
- d. The community people send their girl child regularly for education.
- e. There is awareness created for the rights of girl child.
- f. The community people properly looks towards the health issues related to women

6) Problems Encountered and Resources Required:-

We find the problems related to gender issues such as Education, Health, inequality in family, violence against women, female feticides, eagerness for male child in pregnant women etc.

We are in process to encounter the problems find out with the help of awareness and various methods of professional social work.

The above mentioned practice is self financed and students, teaching staff and community leaders make effort for the same.
