INTRODUCTION

Social work has always been an integral part of each human being. However the concept of social work has well developed over the years and continues to evolve in keeping with changing human and social needs and situations. Social work today does not mean only charity or philanthropy. It has been accorded the significance of a profession like the other helping profession and is practiced in a systematic and methodical manner.

Social work as a profession is being increasingly recognized as a core profession in the process of human and social development. The scope of the human and social services continues to be in keeping with the functioning of the modern welfare state. Professionally trained with qualified Social workers are increasingly being sought for holding responsible positions in the Govt. and Non-Govt. Organization working in the field of individual, family and social development.

Today society has faced with various issues which come into the fields of professional social work education, training and practices. This required professional social worker to have a sound knowledge and value base conducive attitudes and appropriate skill. So that they are better equipped to enable people to help themselves to manage their situations and lives effectively. Appropriate application of scientific knowledge and skill with sound foundation of values is equally essential in the entire process of social work training education, practice and research.

Social work as a professional activity attempts to enable individual's families and communities to satisfy their needs and resolve their difficulties, preferably in their own cultural and social milieu and concerted efforts are made to minimize the barriers tend to prevent people from achieving the best of which they are capable.

In order to be able to face the variety of challenges, professional social work has a very systematic, well developed rigorous and demanding training programme. Over the years training in social work has assumed increasing importance and relevance as it is being recognized that a basic aptitude for helping people can be furthered, directed and moulded in order to ensure one's development as an effective professional social worker.

Training in social work is best received by an open mind. Since the aim and the focus of training is on development of healthy and matured professional personality in order to appropriately meet the demands of the social work profession.

A Demand for trained social worker in various fields is continuously on the increase and new avenues are being opened where human help is needed for dealing with difficult human situations. This training programme therefore emphasizes development of efficient and competent professionals.
